

Environmental Park Tour

2-4

PRE-VISIT ACTIVITY

1. A domestic animal is one that has been tamed by humans and depends on humans to care for it. Circle the 3 domestic animals:

2. A habitat is the place or type of place where a plant or animal naturally lives or grows. Which of these animals is in the correct habitat? (Circle 1)

3. Draw a habitat for a penguin:

Bonus: Go outside with a pencil and piece of paper. Stay very quiet and still. Write down all the living things you can see or hear in a few minutes. Pay attention to what the animals are doing. What do they do if you are noisy or moving?

Environmental Park Tour

2-4

AFTER-VISIT ACTIVITY

1. Name 3 animals that you saw at the barnyard: _____,

_____.

2. What grows on a goat's head? Antlers Horns

Bonus: Why do you think goats grow them? _____

3. The animals at the barnyard are herbivores. This means they eat: (Circle 1) meat pizza plants

4. Plants need what to grow? (Circle 5)

Sunlight Sleep Water Nutrients Space Air

5. White-tailed deer are named that because: (Circle 1)

- a. They have white spots when they are fawns.
- b. They show the underside of their tail to warn other deer about danger.
- c. It helps people remember that only the males (bucks) grow antlers.

6. Raccoons generally sleep during the day. The word for animals that are awake at night is: diurnal fraternal nocturnal

7. True or false, it is okay to have wild animals for pets: True False

8. Name one thing that North American River otters eat in the wild:

9. River otters have webbed feet and long muscular tails to help them swim. What is the word for special features that help an animal do something?

Adaptation Hibernation Elation

10. If pollution causes plants to stop growing, what do you think will happen to the animals? _____

Environmental Park Tour

Teacher
Copy

AFTER-VISIT ACTIVITY

- Name 3 animals that you saw at the barnyard: Cow, Goat, Donkey, Sheep, Chicken.
- What grows on a goat's head? Antlers Horns
Bonus: Why do you think goats grow them? To protect themselves from danger
- The animals at the barnyard are herbivores. This means they eat: (Circle 1) meat pizza plants
- Plants need what to grow? (Circle 5) Sunlight sleep Water Nutrients Space Air
- White-tailed deer are named that because: (Circle 1)
 - They have white spots when they are fawns.
 - They show the underside of their tail to warn other deer about danger.
 - It helps people remember that only the males (bucks) grow antlers.
- Raccoons generally sleep during the day. The word for animals that are awake at night is: diurnal fraternal nocturnal
- True or false, it is okay to have wild animals for pets: True False
- Name one thing that North American River otters eat in the wild:
Fish, clams, frogs, small animals, crabs, crayfish
- River otters have webbed feet and long muscular tails to help them swim. What is the word for special features that help an animal do something?
 Adaptation Hibernation Elation
- If pollution causes plants to stop growing, what do you think will happen to the animals? Answers vary. The animals won't have enough food to eat.