Peppercorn Theatre at Kaleideum presents ...

Learn to Speak Doll

An Imaginative New Adventure Play
for Young Audiences

This July, Peppercorn Theatre at Kaleideum will premiere Learn to Speak Doll – a new play for young audiences, inspired by the legacy of Dr. Maya Angelou.* This original production, commissioned by Peppercorn Theatre and written by Angelica Chéri, is intended for audiences ages 7 and above, and their caregivers.

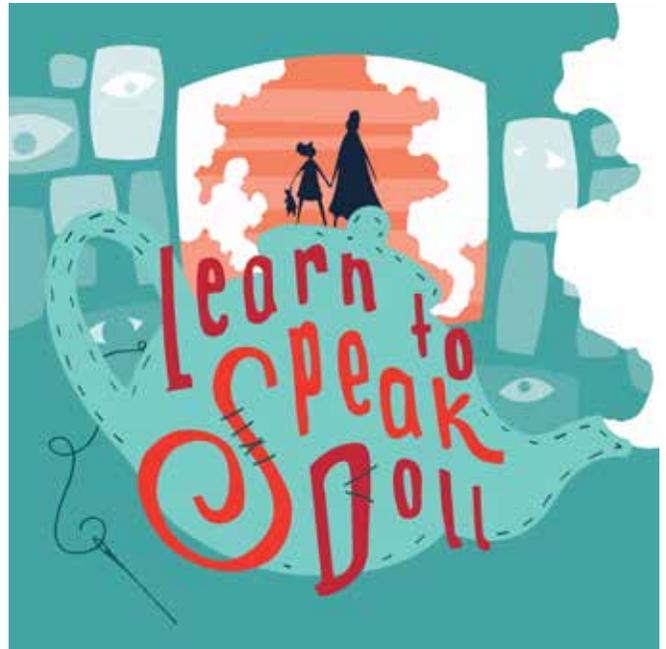

The story centers around Cadence, a young girl who moves from her home on the East Side of Winston-Salem, and finds herself at a new school with rules and classmates that are very different from those she had previously known. Feeling totally isolated, Cadence discovers that the only person who can help her is a famous poet in a magical tea room filled with talking dolls.
